

ADVANTAGES OF BEING A SENIOR TECHNICIAN OF THE INSTITUTION OF ENGINEERS -INDIA (IEI)

- I. NTTF Diploma holders are eligible to become a Senior Technician of IEI by virtue of NTTF diploma.
- II. Financial commitment to become Sr. Technician:
The fee to become a Senior Technician is Rs. 5800/- which includes registration fee, entrance fee, composite subscription fee, fee for membership pack and study material, fee for identity card and fee for prospectus.
- III. Privileges of being a Sr. Technician include:
1. Can participate in all technical discourses organized by IEI
 2. Entitled to write after his/ her name 'Sr.Tech.IEI'.
 3. Can use the library of IEI
 4. Receive Technician's Journal free of cost
 5. Can avail guidance classes provided by IEI
 6. Can attend Technician/ Student Convention/ International Conferences and seminars, and present papers.
 7. Railway concessions to eligible candidates to attend annual convocation.
 8. Can enjoy the facilities and benefits while abroad through professional societies with whom IEI has a bilateral agreement.
 9. Can contest election to become a member of All India Technician's committee of IEI.
-
- IV. Entry to AIME:
1. All the Senior Technicians are provided with a laminated photo ID card.
 2. Can take up Section 'A' (Diploma) and Section 'B' examinations to get their AMIE qualification after paying the applicable fee (visit website <https://www.ieindia.org> for more information).
 3. The exams will be conducted in English and is held twice in a year.
 4. They need pass 4 stipulated subjects for Section A (does not include Engineering Maths and Science) instead of 10 subjects for +2 non diploma candidates. Each exam is of 3 hours duration.
 5. Can take up maximum 4 exams in one session and the minimum grade to pass the exams is 'C' grade
 6. After passing Section A, candidate is required to register for Section B in any of the declared Engineering discipline. It includes Electrical, EC & E, Mechanical Engineering, and Production Engineering & Computer Engineering which are relevant to our students. In Section B, they need take up 6 compulsory subjects and 3 optional subjects from the group declared by IEI.
 7. Once admitted, the candidate need complete Section A exams within 6 years from the date of admission and within another 6 years for Section B papers.
 8. Candidates acquiring minimum Grade C in subjects of engineering branch in Section B can separately apply for a project work and laboratory experiment which is a part of the course.
 9. The grade card and certificates are issued by IEI during their annual convocation held in the succeeding year.
- V. Post-graduation:
1. They also stand a chance to pursue a post graduate programme of IEI in selected Engineering disciplines at Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi.
 2. As per AICTE circular, AIME passed out candidates can take up M.Tech. Courses in any of the Indian universities.